The magazine competes with Forbes and Bloomberg Businessweek in the national business magazine category and distinguishes itself with long, in-depth feature articles.[2] The magazine regularly publishes ranked lists, including the Fortune 500, a ranking of companies by revenue that it has published annually since 1955.[3] The magazine is also known for its annual Fortune Investor's Guide.[4] History Fortune was founded by Time magazine co-founder Henry Luce in 1929 as "the Ideal Super-Class Magazine", a "distinguished and de luxe" publication "vividly portraying, interpreting and recording the Industrial Civilization".[5] Briton Hadden, Luce's business partner, was not enthusiastic about the idea - which Luce originally thought to title Power - but Luce went forward with it after Hadden's sudden death on February 27, 1929.[6] In late October 1929, the Wall Street Crash of 1929 occurred, marking the onset of the Great Depression. ^ Henry Luce & His Time by Joseph Epstein, Commentary, Vol. Archived from the original on February 8, 2018. ^ Hays, Kali (February 1, 2018).
